A VIBRANT CANALSIDE COMMUNITY

Water is the beating lifeblood of the city. And in the East End, the Thames and its man-made tributaries served as vital veins in a bygone industrial era. This network of canals was brought back to life by the 2012 Olympics and at Fish Island Village, a waterside community has been created that captures the creative vibe of this bohemian borough of London, whilst being true to the spirit of Fish Island.

Building on the area’s legacy, this bold vision of a village fuses traditional industrial architecture with forward-thinking design. The creation of a sustainable and supportive environment for all that live and work here is front of mind and this vision has been conceptualised in partnership with The Trampery.

Fish Island Village includes contemporary apartments, a café/bar and innovative workspaces all on its doorstep. The inclusive nature, combined with the energetic atmosphere, means that this is a place where you can be yourself and feel inspired to achieve whatever you put your mind to.
It’s not until you see the whole of Fish Island Village that you get a true feel for the devotion that has gone into the design. With its wharf-inspired architecture, this village is totally in the spirit of local precedents and captures a real essence of the locality. Fish Island Village has also opened up 200 metres of public realm along the Hertford Union Canal, which was previously inaccessible.

A HIDDEN GEM WORTH EXPLORING

Walk or cycle along the towpath and you’ll discover small independent stores and fashionable cafés. Socialise over breakfast and a coffee at The Roasting Shed, stop for lunch and sample the fresh food from world-famous chef Tom Brown at the new Cornerstone restaurant and in the evening, sit back and relax at Barge East, a 114 year old Dutch barge, now converted into an outdoor bar on the canal. All of this is less than a ten minute walk from Fish Island Village.

With plenty of pubs to choose from along the winding River Lea, gourmet restaurants and tasty, authentic street food, Hackney Wick is a food lover’s dream. Here East is less than a mile away and this waterfront retail destination is booming with canal side eateries.

The iconic art scene in Hackney Wick is clear to see as soon as you step outside. Stour Space is a two-minute walk away and is a great place to spot local artwork. The Yard Theatre, a converted warehouse that now stages live theatrical performances, is also nearby. Browse the vinyl collections on Felstead Street or indulge in some freshly-baked bread at the German Deli.

When dusk falls in nearby Stratford, grab a cocktail at the Print House or head to funky urban hangout Roof East.

The area is also full of entertainment options. You can take in a show at the Theatre Royal Stratford East, catch the latest blockbuster at the local cinema or simply spend a day window shopping in Westfield.

Unwind in Victoria Park, London’s oldest park or visit nearby Victoria Park Village where you’ll be transported to a quaint bygone setting with independent shops.
